

Have a go at making a vehicle with bits and pieces you have lying around the house. Here are some ideas to get you started – see if you can power your vehicle in some way. Balloons, rubber bands, the wind, batteries and motors or solar panels – it depends what bits and bobs you already have.

Be creative and have fun!

