

English - Thursday 23rd April

Today we are going to finish collecting ideas and outstanding phrases for our setting of Pompeii which we will write tomorrow!

Below there are images of some children's work - the drawing of the setting and the phrases written around. Feel free to magpie any words or phrases that you like and that you would like to use in your setting. Add them to your picture.

This will show you lots of images of Pompeii before and after the eruption. If you see anything you would like to add to your setting picture then please do add them today.

Pompeii glimmered in the Sunlight.

Beyond Pompeii there was the great Protector.

On the hillside
glimmering
fruit grow.

As the Sun rose
the marvolous
city grow.

The birds sang in the distance

Fresh
food from the markets
filled the air.

Yells from salesmans echoed the
egnormas city

Soft rippling ocean

Gentle sway
of the bloodred mast glowing Sunrises

Calm
breeze

Crystal
clear
bay
of Naples

Salty
scent
lingers

fishy
musk
from the fisherman's fresh catch

Shadow of mount Vesuvius catapults over the bay

blanket of waves
gently
ripples
