

English Weekly Overview for w/c 18.05.20

This week we will be hitting the grammar hard! Most days I will set you a PIXL quick grammar quiz with answers for you to revise! If there is anything you are unsure about please just ask! Like last time, because this is a Pixl resource, it has to be password protected so when you open it enter the password South America (note capital letters and space!). Please note that to password protect this I have to save it in word.

We are also going to revise adverbs and inverted commas.

I would also love you to focus on your reading for pleasure this week. Perhaps you could do some extreme reading - read to a pet or a toy and put a picture on the blog. I will start this by putting a picture of me reading with my dog Lily!

Monday - Handwriting and Spellings. Use Letter join - We will continue to practice some of the words from the harder words section. This week it is huge, going, quay, queen

Go to <https://www.letterjoin.co.uk/log-in.html> and user name is vt7501 and password is: home. Select Y4.

Reading for pleasure! Read in an interesting place or with a pet and send me a picture on the blog if you can!

Tuesday and Wednesday - Grammar quiz each day and revise adverbs and inverted commas from powerpoints in the folder.

For the rest of the week we will be looking at the "Coronavirus" book produced by Axel Scheffler and we will be reading and writing some free verse poetry - more about that later in the week!
