

Tuesday 12th May - English

Today we are going to do a quick write activity using a picture as a starting point. You will find the picture and activities in the folder today.

Before you do this please watch my introduction here:

Password: South America

As I explain in the video, not all the activities need to be written!

1. I would like you to write the description of the volcano picture using powerful verbs, adjectives. Also try to include personification and metaphor if you want to challenge yourself further. Let the writing flow for the quick r
2. I would like you to improve the sick sentence and identify which sentence has two verbs.
3. The question about the story starter are discussion questions and can just be discussed with an adult or written down if you like.
4. The picture of the volcano is optional but many of you love creating art I know!!!!

Enjoy writing!
