

English Weekly Overview for w/c 15.06.2020

We are going to be learning:

- The different between formal and informal language
- The layout and features of a letter
- Find and retrieve skills when reading a non-fiction text (letters)

Monday:

Spellings – Look at the grid we used last week and choose a different way to learn your spellings. Ask an adult to help to test you.

Handwriting – We are injecting a bit of humour into our handwriting this week and writing some jokes! Take your time to make sure each join is the best you can make it!

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday -This is our reading week for Letter Writing. We are going to be reading “Dear Greenpeace” and looking at the language and features of informal and formal letter writing. We will be reading and sorting a range of letters according to their language and layout. We will be practising our comprehension skills, in particular find and retrieve.

Friday – This is our philosophy day so there won't be any English set today.
