Today's planet of the day is Mars.

Research this amazing planet and make a poster/Top Trumps card/factfile/song/slideshow to show off your knowledge of our nearest neighbour. What makes Mars special? How did it get its name? Will people ever live there? Can we see it from Earth? Answer these questions and more :)

English

Your first job today is to make sure that you have read (or listened to) Wonder up to page 67. You'll find the links to the Soundcloud files on Google Classroom.

Then, have a look at today's English assignment. It looks at Mr Browne's precepts and asks you to have a think about them and what they might mean – open the file to find the instructions for what to do.

Maths Please do a half hour session on RMEasimaths today if possible.

Today's lesson is the second problem solving lesson. The video is here: <https://vimeo.com/429001022> Password North America. Please watch and then complete Power Maths C pgs 48-50.

This week's spelling activities This half term I have set up an account for you all on Oxford Owl, which gives us access to activities for Read, Write Inc. Go to www.oxfordowl.co.uk and click the pink 'My Class Login' at the top. The username is mrs lindner and the password is North America. This will take you to a page where you then select Read Write Inc Extra Practice Zone. Click this and navigate to activities for 9-11yrs (or other ages if you need extra practice). Choose whichever activity you like and work on it for about 15 mins. You can also access a whole range of online reading books and other online games (English and maths) from the same site – explore and enjoy!

Music I'd love it if you check out the BBC Ten Pieces website with activities that you can do at home: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/ten-pieces/ten-pieces-at-home/zjy3382> There are currently 5 lessons on here – take your pick!

PE - Find the links to our PE challenges on the school website – there are challenges from the Norfolk School Games and the WNDSSP.

French You'll find this week's French lesson on the school website. Alternatively, spend some time on Duolingo improving your skills, or why not have a go at writing a letter to a friend using some of the French that you know?

Don't forget to look at the 'Thought for the Day' on the website. We're phasing out the blog and moving to Google Classroom.
