Literacy:

For our Literacy lessons this week, in addition to the ideas on the weekly overview sheet, I'd like you to complete a story map of 'What the ladybird heard', and to rewrite the story. Take it slowly and write a little bit each day. Try very hard to form your letters correctly (starting and finishing in the right place), sitting your letters neatly on the lines, sounding out for your spellings, using capital letters, finger spaces and full stops!

Handwriting: as the children move on into year 1, they will be introduced to pre-cursive and cursive (joined up) handwriting. Around this time in reception, we usually start to introduce the pre-cursive - whooshes on the letters! I've included a hand writing practise sheet with some tricky words if you feel your child is ready.

Maths:

This week we are beginning to look at numerical patterns, starting with doubles. If you'd like more learning ideas than the daily lessons, please continue to use the white rose maths resources for week 8 IN ADDITION to my lessons but please be mindful that these are covering a different topic areas so need to be completely separate so as not to confuse your little ones. We're up to week 8 of the white rose hub this week.

Log on to www.rmunify.com to access RM EasiMaths. If you need help with this please see Miss Newcombe's support on the website or message me. It really is a brilliant fun and interactive resource. It adapts to suit your child's ability...the more you play, the better it gets!! Please try to do around 15 mins each day ☺. It does need to be accessed on a PC or laptop for access to flashplayer.

Philosophy Friday's

For each Friday this half term, Mrs Lindner will introduce Philosophy Friday's where we will discuss and explore 'big questions'. The weeks have been planned to be inclusive to children of all year groups across the whole school, meaning siblings can work together to explore and think widely about the topics. Look out on our website for more information from Mrs Lindner.

Have a look on the weekly planning overview sheet for this week which has suggested activities for each area of learning within the EYFS as well as some addition activity sheets and ideas that have been uploaded for you.
