English:

Today and tomorrow I would like you to write/create a fact file about the Tudors.

You can show this in whichever way you like - it can be a PowerPoint, a video, a large poster, a booklet or a written piece – however you wish to share your knowledge.

The more interesting, the better!

Maths: Today we are continuing our work on capacity.

Today we are measuring capacity using ml and l again, but with more challenging tasks.
