

Thomas Bullock CE Primary Academy

Home Learning – Year 6 – Wednesday 10th June 2020

Apparently, today is #BallpointPenDay – how are you celebrating?!

Today's plant of the day is the pitcher plant. There are many different species of these fascinating carnivorous plants.

Watch this video to find out more:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Z08FhT3-cJc> Then, make a labelled diagram of one, showing how it catches its prey.

This week's spelling - Please continue to hone your spelling skills by using our class log-in to the Extra Practice Zone of Read, Write, Inc: Go to www.oxfordowl.co.uk and click the pink 'My Class Login' at the top. The username is mrs lindner and the password is North America.

English

See the English file for details of today's writing task based around the book 'Wonder'. If you haven't yet read or listened up to page 53, please also do that today.

Maths Please do a half hour session on RMEasimaths today if possible. I would also like you to have a go at the next WhiteRose lesson. Today you need:

<https://whiterosemaths.com/homelearning/year-6/>

Summer Term Week 2 Lesson 1 – 'Angles in special quadrilaterals'.

'Production' task today – please continue to think about and practise your talent. I need a 15-30 second clip from all of you – if you are able to film something today (or you've already done it) then please send it to me via Google Classroom. This can be a 'first draft' and you can re-film at a later date if you want to improve, but please let me see what you have so far!

PSHE Your production task focuses on WHAT you can do: each and every person in our class is amazing, and you all have various skills that contribute to who you are. However, it is not WHAT you can do that is the most important – it is WHO you are and what you are like inside. After all, we don't stay friends with people based on the fact they're good at football or can spell onomatopoeia – we stay friends with people because of their qualities and character.

Character is about YOU – are you kind, funny, helpful, determined, hardworking, patient, nurturing, playful? It's what makes you, you! You might be good at maths/English or a talented footballer but why? You're probably good at things because of your hard work, perseverance and determination – we want to celebrate those values and character traits and not just the skill.

I would like you to use the sheet in your transition pack that has the outline of the person on it. Around the outside of the person, please write or draw all the things that you can DO. Inside the outline, think much more carefully about all the values, characteristics and personality traits that make you, you. Draw and write these attributes inside the person outline. You are all amazing – think about why!

Don't forget to look at the 'Thought for the Day' on the website, and also check in with the Class blog. Join us on Google Classroom too.