All About Our Workshops

We run a series of online workshops through the year and more workshops are being designed and added - join our Facebook page to keep up to date!

Behaviours that Challenge

Workshop for parent/carers of children/young people with a disability and/or SEND
This workshop explores an introductory strategy to understand behaviour that challenges.

Resilience

Workshop for parent/carers of children/young people with a disability and/or SEND. Join us online to discuss ways to recognise and build resilience and self care.

Intro to Neurodiversity

Workshop for parent/carers of children/young people with a disability and/or SEND.
This is a bespoke workshop for parent/carers that builds understanding on autism, ADHD and PDA.

Teens

Support for parents and carers in navigating the teenage years and the challenges of puberty, and supporting independence. We provide a safe space to allow you to share any concerns associated with puberty that you may have and look at strategies to support these.

Come along, enjoy some food, drink or an ice cream.
Support our raffle and games whilst cheering on our amazing participants and support Able2B.
It promises to be a truly inspirational and emotional day, highlighting what is possible when we support one another and come together as a community.

You'll see our participants, both mainstream and SEN children take on a challenge together, building understanding, confidence, and teamwork along the way. There's also an Adult Community Sponsored Walk, giving everyone the chance to get involved.

This is a positive, inclusive event that brings people together to raise awareness and celebrate how challenges can be overcome.
Join us and help support Able2B in achieving its aims and making a real difference.

A day not to be missed!
